Subject: Thank You for Your Dedication and Commitment

Dear Team,

Today, the Mississippi Department of Corrections joins departments nationwide in expressing our heartfelt appreciation for the hard work and dedication you demonstrate each day. Your diligence and commitment to the mission of the MDOC are vital in ensuring public safety across our communities.

As MDOC officers, you promote public safety through the management of safe and secure facilities, effective supervision, and rehabilitative services that transform lives. While your roles often come with both praise and criticism, it is fulfilling to know that the impact you make is profound and unique.

Although we take this day to specifically recognize your contributions, please know that your efforts are appreciated every day. Thank you for your unwavering commitment to making Mississippi a safe place to live and work.

With gratitude,
