

Marshall County inmates graduate A&D programs

HOLLY SPRINGS – Getting a fresh start in sobriety.

Sixteen men in short-term and long-term programs (eight each) have graduated from the Alcohol and Drug program at the Marshall County Correctional Facility.

"This is a great program for our men who want a fresh start in sobriety," Marshall's Interim Supt. Clint Mauney said.

