

MDOC Remembers, Pays Tribute to Heroes of 9-11

The Mississippi Department of Corrections remembered the events of September 11, 2001, on the 25th anniversary of the terrorist attacks in New York City, Washington D.C., and the site in Pennsylvania.

During Friday's anniversary, Deputy Commissioner Derrick Garner joined others for a 9/11 run in Flowood completing 11 miles. Garner heads the Division of Administration and Finance which includes budgeting, human resources, fiscal comptroller, procurement, property, and warehousing, and agricultural enterprises.

Meanwhile in the North Delta region of the state, the fire department at the Mississippi State Penitentiary at Parchman joined others in a remembrance ceremony in Cleveland.
