MDOC Searching for Escaped Inmate

JACKSON, MS (December 9) – The Mississippi Department of Corrections, along with other law enforcement agencies, is searching for a state inmate who has escaped from the Mississippi State Penitentiary.

Inmate Gregory Trigg, #R4245, is serving a total of 61 years for nine sentences, including armed robbery, two counts of kidnapping, residential burglary, conspiracy to commit a crime, and convicted felon in possession of a firearm all committed in Madison County. He is also serving time for vehicle burglary and vehicle theft committed in Rankin County and nonresidential burglary committed in Scott County.

Trigg is a black male with a baldhead and brown eyes. He is 6 feet tall and weighs 200 pounds.

The MDOC encourages anyone spotting Trigg to call their local law enforcement agency.

Gregory Trigg, #R4245
