MDOC Searches for State Inmate Who Escaped Scott County Jail

JACKSON – A state inmate who escaped the Scott County Jail is being sought by the Mississippi Department of Corrections, with help from other authorities.

Inmate Gregory Trigg, #R4245, was discovered missing today during the morning count at 10:30 a.m. He was being held at the jail on a court order.

Trigg, 38, is serving a total of 37 years for armed robbery and kidnapping, both in Madison County, and burglary of a vehicle in Rankin County. He was sentenced on May 22.

Trigg is a large build black male with brown eyes. His head is bald and he has a goatee.

If you see Trigg or know of his whereabouts contact the MDOC at 662-745-6611 or your nearest law enforcement office.
