State Inmate Among 4 Coahoma County Jail Escapees

A state inmate and a parolee are among four inmates wanted after escaping the Coahoma County Jail in Clarksdale about 1:35 a.m. Friday.

Leandrew Booker (#188596) was convicted of armed robbery and sentenced on July 19 to 20 years with 17 to serve and three on probation. He has two prior convictions: non-residential burglary, sentenced in 2014 to four years with three years probation; and burglary larceny of an unoccupied dwelling, also in 2014, with five years to serve and five years probation. He had been released on parole on April 13. Booker, 22, has a total of 26 years to serve.

Parolee Corderius Thomas (#181317) was convicted of burglary of an unoccupied dwelling in 2013 and sentenced to serve five years followed by five years probation. Thomas, 23, was paroled on Aug. 29, 2014.

The other two escapees are Percy Bryant and Marquis Stevenson.

If anyone has any information regarding the locations of these four people, contact MDOC at 662-745-6611, Coahoma County Sheriff's Department at 662-645-9300 or the local law enforcement agency.
