Two Escapees Now in Custody

JACKSON – The Mississippi Department of Corrections announces that escapees Zachary Savoie and Joshua Walton are now in custody.

Savoie, #199638, and Walton, #202729, were captured today in different parts of the state thanks to the efforts of MDOC and other law enforcement agencies. More information about their capture will follow.

The two men escaped the Harrison County Community Work Center in Gulfport on Sept. 11.

Savoie, 21, and Walton, 33, were both convicted of residential burglary.

Savoie received a total of four years also for grand larceny in Pike County when he was sentenced on Sept. 15, 2015.

Walton received six years in Neshoba County when he was sentenced this year on March 15.
